- If the Defendant does not wish to dispute the claim of the Plaintiff, he/she may appear to agree to a judgment and for the purpose of allowing the court to establish a method by which the judgment shall be paid.
- If the Defendant cannot appear at the time and place set for trial, he/she shall write the Court at the above address requesting a trial setting at a future date.
- If the Defendant fails to appear in Court at the time set for the trial, a default judgment may be entered against the Defendant.
- The Plaintiff waives a trial by jury by filing his/her claim in the Small Claims Court.
- The Defendant waives trial by jury also unless he/she requests a jury trial within ten (10) calendar days of the receipt of the Notice of Claim. Once a request for trial by jury is granted, a transfer fee for transfer to the Superior Court must be paid within ten (10) calendar days. If the fee is not paid, waiver of jury trial occurs. Once a request is made and fee paid, request cannot be withdrawn without the consent of the other party.
- The Defendant may within ten (10) days of service of the summons file a change of venue of this matter. Proper venue is determined by the court in the following order:
 - (1) In an action upon a debt or account, venue is in the township where any defendant has consented to venue in a writing signed by the defendant.
 - (2) Venue is in the township where a transaction or occurrence giving rise to any part of the claim took place.
 - (3) Venue is in the township (in a county of the Small Claims Court) where the greater percentage of individual defendants included in the complaint resides, or, if there is no such greater percentage, the place where any individual defendant so named resides, owns real estate, or rents an apartment or real estate or where the principal office or place of business of any defendant is located.
 - (4) Venue is in the township where the claim was filed if there is no other township in the county in which the small claims court sits in which required venue lies.

Claims between landlord and tenants shall be in the township where the real estate is located.
